

Published in:

Bernhard, I. (ed.) (2018) Uddevalla Symposium 2018: Diversity, Innovation, Entrepreneurship - Regional, Urban, National and International Perspectives

Revised papers first presented at the 21st Uddevalla Symposium 14-16 June, 2018, Luleå, Sweden

Editor: Iréne Bernhard, University West, Trollhättan, Sweden

ISBN 978-91-88847-11-9

ISSN 2002-6188

Distributed by: University West, School of Business, Economics and IT

SE-461 86 Trollhättan, Sweden

+46 520 22 36 78 irene.bernhard@hv.se

Contents

A High-Tech Trajectory in a Resource-Based Economy:

Modern Biotechnology in Norway

P. Afshin & T. Grønning 11

An Enabler for Employee Driven Innovation: The role of Management Style

J-E. Andreassen.....33

Tentative Indices for Regional Economic Development

- An Exploratory Study Using Swedish Municipal Data

T. Arvemo & U. Gråsjö.....49

Identifying Summer Segments on the Swedish West Coast – the Case of Lysekil

T. Arvemo & E. Torsein.....61

Have we Oversold the Silicon Valley Model of Entrepreneurship?

D. B. Audretsch.....77

Globalizing Startups

Business Development Organizations in the Bay Area

D. Bartlett & T. Mroczkowski.....87

How Academic Engagement can Influence Firm Innovation

The Perspective of Industrial PhD Students in Engineering

K. Berg.....109

Stakeholder Collaboration for Place Innovation - Challenges and Visions in Local Regeneration

I. Bernhard, A. K. Olsson & U. Lundh Snis.....129

Sustainability among Large Sized Companies in Europe -

Are there National Differences in their Sustainability Information?

M. Bogren, A. Cawthorn & A. Sörensson.....149

Determinants of Regional Change and Income – Macro Implications of Innovation Capabilities on Regional Performance in a European Perspective

A. P. Cornett & N. K. Sørensen.....165

Conceptualizing and Measuring Specialization

A Literature Review and Empirical Test with Implications for Smart Specialization

T. Ejdemo & D. Örtqvist 187

As an Element of the Regional Innovation Cluster. The Citizen/Non-Profis Sector that fulfil the “Seebed function” of the New Industry

M. Imase	209
Innovation Systems at a Crossroads
Implementing Systems of Transformative Innovation
I. Jonsson & L. Mosesdottir	227
The Factors in the Establishment of Shizuoka Regional Sake Cluster
Regional Human Resources Enabling Open Innovation
N. Kishida	249
Do SMEs in Border Regions Benefit from their Location?
A Review of the Literature
T. Makkonen	267
The Empirical Study of the Emergence and Diffusion Process of Design-Driven Innovation Initiated by Knowledge Creation:
From the Filed Study in the Industrial Cluster of the Sumida Ward, Tokyo
T. Maeno, M. Okuyama, K. Sakakura & T. Yasui	283
Patent Generation in U.S. Metropolitan Areas
G. F. Mulligan	301
Anchoring Forward the Grand Challenge of Eradicating Homelessness
A. Sannino	317
A Study of the Forward effect of Regional Innovation Cluster, Based on a Case of Sasayama's Tourism and Related Industrial Clusters
H. Ukai	327
Yoga as an Engine for Self-Leadership in a Digitalized Everyday Life
E. Wihlborg & K. Winander	345
Geographical Concentration of Creation of New Industries Observed at Tsubame-Sanjo Cluster in Japan
- What does Cluster Supply-
T. Yoshikawa	363